

Red Ribbon Week

Red Ribbon week is October 22nd – October 26th. Scholars have the opportunity to support being drug free by participating in the following themed dress days:

- Monday - “Team up Against Drugs!” Wear your favorite team shirt and jeans.
- Tuesday- “It’s My Dream to Be Drug Free!” Wear pajamas.
- Wednesday- “Join the Fight Against Drugs” Wear military attire, camouflage shirt/pants or Tae Kwon Do or a Karate uniform. Jeans are allowed on this day with a camouflage shirt.
- Thursday- “Living Drug-Free is No Sweat” Wear sweats (NO athletic tights, mesh or see-through tights or pants and no tank tops or hoodies).
- Friday- Dress up as your favorite Book Character. Students must bring a book that goes along with the book character costume (NO masks, weapons, scary costumes, or accessories such as wands, swords, etc.). Students CAN wear light makeup and capes that go on their backs.
